Re: Chapter 11 Case No. 08-13555 (JMP)
Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I just received the letter you sent, February 1, 2012 (copy enclosed) regarding claims in reference to Lehman Brothers Holdings.

The Confirmation Order was, (ECF No. 23023) confirming that modified was entered on December 6' 2011, by the Southern District Court of New York, signed by the Honorable James M. Peck, US Bankruptcy Judge.

Apparently there was a 45 day time frame in which to file any claims.

I just received the letter –notification on February 1, 2012, well after the 45 day time limit.

Additionally, there was no clear and expressed method for submissions or specifically explaining what had to be submitted.

This document was mailed late and received late, and also had no clearly defined submission requirements. It is quite apparent that this was done intentionally, either to eliminate submissions based on the required 45 day time parameter, which was obviously missed because of this late notification as well as an apparent effort on your firm's part to make this so confusing and unclear that submissions could not be made without further clarifications.

Just after receiving your letter this afternoon at 3PM, I called your office (212) 310-8000 this afternoon, when I mentioned Lehman Brothers Holdings, your receptionist immediately placed me into a recorded line on which I left my name, home and cell telephone numbers.

I finally received a return call and no contact name or information was left on my voice mail.

I have not received a return call.

I have a 50,000 dollar Lehman Brothers Bond. Since you mailed this notification late and did not enumerate specific submission requirements, you have breached your own date requirements and I am therefore not bound by this notification. I expect to fully recoup my investment plus interest.

Without further delay, please send the check to:
